HKCC PARTNER KEVIN CLYNE ELECTED TO SERVE ON ACIT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(Melville and Bethpage, New York) – Herman Katz Cangemi & Clyne, LLP (HKCC) Partner and Bethpage resident Kevin M. Clyne was elected to serve on the board of directors of Advancement for Commerce, Industry & Technology (ACIT). As one of Long Island's largest business networking organizations, ACIT has served as a strong and effective voice for Long Island's business community since 1963.

With more than 10 years of experience Clyne has achieved a distinctive track record successfully prosecuting the valuation of diverse types of commercial and retail properties, including: office, industrial and warehouse buildings; hotels, motels and resorts; regional shopping centers and department stores; golf courses; restaurants; and more. During his 12 years at the bar Clyne has developed a reputation as a vigilant advocate for his client's interests throughout upstate New York and Long Island.

In addition to serving on the ACIT Board of Directors, Clyne is a member of the Tax Certiorari and Condemnation Committees of the Nassau County Bar Association, the Suffolk County Bar Association, the Westchester County Bar Association and the Bar Association of the City of New York. He also is a member of the Long Island Builder's Institute (LIBI), the Long Island Real Estate Group (LIREG) and Action Long Island (ALI) - where he co-chaired the ALI Housing Task Force. Clyne has served as a board member of the New York Condemnation Conference and lectured on property tax law at Hofstra University School of Law.

His charitable initiatives include serving on the golf committee for the Hagedorn Little Village School in Seaford and actively advancing the cause of supported employment for individuals with disabilities for Adults and Children with Learning and Developmental Disabilities (ACLD) in Bethpage. Clyne is a 1999 graduate of Hofstra University School of Law, where he was a member of the Law Review and a 1996 cum laude graduate of Loyola College of Maryland.
